7	EOI Document, Section 5.3, Evaluation Stage 3 - RFP - Technical and Commercial Proposal Submission, Page no. 25 & 26	Addition: The following is added to the Terms and Conditions: Technical workshop/presentation with the shortlisted bidders will be conducted and opportunity will be given to all such bidders to participate in the discussions and a suitable technical solution to be decided by laying down the technical specifications, software components and integration requirements etc. The bidders will be required to submit a POC/POS proposal compliant to the technical solution discussed. The bidders will then be required to participate in the POC process as required under the RFP. Any bidder invited to participate in the POC, but is not in a position to supply the technical solution due to modifications in the technical specifications or terms and conditions, is allowed to withdraw from the bidding proceedings either before conducting POC or before submission of technical bid without forfeiting its bid security, by declaring its intention to withdraw from procurement proceedings with adequate justification. The decision of the LIC in the matter of technical specifications and terms & conditions will be final.
